

97% recommend that their friends do the programme.

The Presidents Award is making a difference in young people lives. It inspires action and offers hope to many.

It is regarded as the world's leading youth achievement award as it brings together life skills and practical experiences that prepare young people for life and work.

Empowering Youth —Transforming South Africa.

The Award inspires young people to discover their purpose, to develop their characters and to determine their futures.

Key Research Findings Top 5 Results

Awareness of the needs of others	95%
Learnt to appreciate diversity	95%
Learnt to work with other people	94%
Learnt the importance of persevering	94%
Developed greater personal responsibility	90%

16000 Young South Africans are working towards achieving their Bronze, Silver or Gold Awards this year. www.presidentsaward.co.za